

Thomas and Tori, Ages 12 and 13

Consider Adoption!

Tori, Age 13, is a bright and pleasant young girl with lots of interests. In addition to being an honor student, she plays soccer, enjoys scrapbooking, listening to music, shopping, and drawing. Tori has a lot of friends and is doing very well in her current school. She is hoping she and her brother can be adopted together by a family in that school district.

Thomas, Age 12, is a friendly and outgoing sports enthusiast who enjoys football, basketball, and baseball. He also likes music, video games and reading. Thomas is on target academically and likes all subjects (but says he's best at science). Thomas has an IEP for speech and takes medication for ADHD, which helps him stay focused at school.
